

Supreme Court of Kentucky

2001-1

IN RE:
ORDER AMENDING
ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES OF THE COURT

The following rule amendment shall become effective January 1, 2002.

AMENDMENT TO THE ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES OF THE COURT OF JUSTICE
ELECTRONIC ACCESS BY THE BAR

1. AP X, § 1*

AP X, § 1 shall read:

- (1) Members are authorized to access Kentucky Court of Justice electronic records and computers by means authorized for use by the general public.
- (2) Members are authorized to access Kentucky Court of Justice electronic records and computers by means authorized for members of the bar for the purpose of accessing cases involving members' clients.
- (3) Electronic records and computers of the Kentucky Court of Justice not available to the general public shall be accessed only in accordance with the written authorization of the Kentucky Court of Justice pursuant to terms of use and access approved by the Chief Justice.
- (4) Members shall not intentionally access Kentucky Court of Justice electronic records or computers without authorization.
- (5) Members shall not access Kentucky Court of Justice electronic records or computers and intentionally exceed authorized access and thereby view, obtain or alter information contained in Kentucky Court of Justice records.
- (6) "Member" has the same definition as SCR 3.010.

*AP X § 1 is created to increase lawyer access to electronic court records which will promote judicial efficiency by reducing case costs to parties and to carry forward the anti-browsing principles of Petition of Hubbard, Ky., 267 S.W.2d 743 (1954).

All sitting. All concur.

ENTERED: June 8, 2001.
