Supreme Court of Kentucky to hear arguments Aug. 8-10 in Frankfort Proceedings are open to the public

FRANKFORT, Ky., July 31, 2018 – The Supreme Court of Kentucky will convene Aug. 8-10 in Frankfort to hear oral arguments. Proceedings are open to the public and will take place in the Supreme Court Courtroom on the second floor of the state Capitol at 700 Capitol Ave. in Frankfort.

The public may also observe oral arguments via the Supreme Court live stream on the Kentucky Court of Justice website. Oral arguments are available online as they occur in real time and are not available as archives.

The Supreme Court is the state court of last resort and the final interpreter of Kentucky law. Seven justices sit on the Supreme Court and all seven justices rule on appeals that come before the court. The justices are elected from seven appellate districts and serve eight-year terms. A chief justice, chosen for a four-year term by fellow justices, is the administrative head of the state's court system and is responsible for its operation. The Supreme Court may order a ruling or opinion to be published, which means that the ruling becomes the case law governing all similar cases in the future in Kentucky.

“KRS 186.010(7)(c) and KRS 186A.220. Requirements to Transfer an Automobile. Whether a car dealer complied with the statutory transfer requirement of obtaining proof of insurance prior to actual transfer of the vehicle, so as not to be deemed the owner of the vehicle at the time of a subsequent accident. Additional issues include: (1) whether there is a bona fide sale where the dealer has not received a valid title to transfer the vehicle; (2) whether the dealer complied with the statute requiring transfer paperwork be promptly completed, so as to be protected from liability for a subsequent accident, and (3) whether compliance by a subsequent dealer with the statutory requirement regarding proof of insurance absolves from liability prior dealer who failed to promptly comply with the statute.”
