

Supreme Court of Kentucky

AMENDED ORDER

2015-13

IN RE: AMENDMENT TO ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES OF THE COURT OF JUSTICE, PART XVI, IGNITION INTERLOCK

Under KRS 189A.420, the Supreme Court of Kentucky hereby establishes the following sliding scale of indigency as a guideline for judges to use in determining the amount a defendant must pay for an ignition interlock system:

Federal Poverty Guidelines	Percentage Respondent is to Pay
200%	100%
175%	75%
150%	50%
125%	25%
100%	0%

The Federal Poverty Guidelines are established annually by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. The 2015 Poverty Guidelines for the 48 Contiguous States and the District of Columbia may be located in the Federal Register, Vol. 80, No. 3236, January 22, 2015, pp. 3236-3237, or as set forth below:

2014 Federal Poverty Guidelines for the 48 Contiguous States
Persons in family	Poverty guideline
1	$11,770
2	$15,930
3	$20,090
4	$24,250
5	$28,410
6	$32,570
7	$36,730
8	$40,890
For families with more than 8 persons, add $4,160 for each additional person.

If a judge finds that the fee would impose an undue burden on the defendant, the judge may reduce or waive the fee. The sliding scale is intended only as a guideline for judges, who are encouraged to use discretion in applying the factors listed on AOC Form AOC-495.8 when making an indigency determination for purposes of an ignition interlock system.

The sliding scale will be updated annually to reflect the most current Federal Poverty Guidelines.

This Order shall be effective June 24, 2015.

Entered this 15th day of June 2015.
